General W. Bedell Smith
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear General Smith:

Allen Dulles and a number of the other people in your organization are interested in the work of the Conference on Southeast Asia being sponsored by the School during the week of August eleventh. I hope that, if you are going to be in Washington during that time, you may find it possible to attend some of the sessions. I am enclosing a copy of the Conference program for your information, together with a ticket of admission.

I would appreciate it very much if you would have your secretary let us know whether or not you will be able to attend any of the meetings in order that various details for the Conference may be completed.

Sincerely yours,

Philip W. Thayer
Dean

Note for record: Dean Thayer's office called 8/5/52 AM to inquire about sending an invitation to General and Mrs. Smith for Monday evening, 8/11. They were asked to express to Dean Thayer General Smith's appreciation for the invitation and his regrets that his heavy schedule would not permit his attendance at any of the sessions of the Conference, and also that General and Mrs. Smith would not be able to accept an invitation for Monday evening because of a prior commitment. lec
